THE WDM CELEBRATES 40 YEARS IN MOOSE JAW

In 1974 the sod was turned for the newest of the four Western Development Museum's in Saskatchewan. Two years later, on June 26, 1976, Premier Allan Blakeney cut the ribbon, opening the doors of the WDM Moose Jaw.

We've come a long way in forty years – the Short Line railway began operations in 1978, the Snowbirds Gallery opened in 1992 and the Winning the Prairie Gamble grand opening was held in 2009. The Museum continues to host many local and national travelling exhibits and welcomes visitors from around the world.

We appreciate all our visitors and thank you for your continued support. Join us for free coffee, juice and cookies on June 26, 2016.

Heard about our summer camps and aren't sure if they are right for your child? The Museum is also hosting a 'camp preview day' for a sneak preview of Space Camp, Creepy Crawly Camp, Pirate Camp and Spy Camp activities. Find the right camp? You can register your child right on-site!
