WDM MOOSE JAW OPENS TWO EXCITING TRAVELLING EXHIBITS TO CELEBRATE CANADA 150

The WDM Moose Jaw is thrilled to have Women's Hands Building A Nation on display from the Chinook Guild of Fiber Arts (CGFA) through January 29, 2018. Women's Hands Building A Nation, a non-juried fine craft exhibition commemorating Canada's 150th birthday, is a collection of over 50 fiber art pieces celebrating Canadian women's accomplishments and contributions to Canada's growth as a nation. Topics such as the right to vote, women's progression of work, and specific women's achievements are featured.

Also on exhibit is Our Collective Threads: Saskatchewan People in Canada, A Travelling Exhibit for Canada 150, curated by the Western Development Museum. Our Collective Threads explores the diverse history of Saskatchewan people through artifacts from its exceptional textile collection. From the most exquisite evening gowns to ordinary work clothes, the WDM has collected clothing from many aspects of life in Saskatchewan. The exhibit showcases 12 garments and accessories for visitors to learn about our many identities and is on exhibit through March 2, 2018.
