BOOMTOWN STREET OFFERS A GLIMPSE INTO ARMISTICE DAY NOVEMBER 11, 1918 AT THE WDM SASKATOON

At the 11th hour, on the 11th day, of the 11th month in 1918 the Armistice came into effect, marking a victory for the Allies and ending the First World War. When news broke, communities erupted into celebration. Canadians weren't just celebrating the end of a long and bloody conflict but were celebrating victory and a renewed hope for peace.

To commemorate the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War, the WDM Saskatoon will be setting up a unique installation on Boomtown Street, which will see it transformed into November 11, 1918.

Through reproduction newspapers, flags and banners, visitors to Boomtown from November 1 through 18 will get a glimpse into what it was like on November 11, 1918 in communities across Canada.
