A MESSAGE FROM THE CEO

Giving at the WDM

How do you say thank you to people who have given so much to the WDM? How do you thank people who continue to give?

We are blessed by the many people who have given their time, talent and treasure to build a provincial museum we can all be proud of. We are also blessed by the people who continue to give. Who are inspired by our work and want to be a part of it, to belong to the WDM as a volunteer, a member, a donor, an employee, often all at the same time.

April 7–13, 2019 is National Volunteer Week. Throughout the WDM, volunteers are integral to our programs and activities. Much of what we do wouldn't happen without the people willing to give their time and talent. Last year, 1,077 volunteers at the Museum contributed 46,113.25 hours making our programs and activities exciting and engaging for people of all ages and ensuring our collections were well cared for.

May is LEAVE A LEGACY™ month and the WDM continues to benefit from those willing to give their treasure to support our work. Whether it was a gift during our annual campaign, a donation to a specific project or a legacy gift included in a last will and testament, our supporters gave almost $300,000 last year. Funds which have allowed us to complete projects that would otherwise have not been possible.

We believe everyone deserves to feel like they belong. It's a basic human need and contributes to health and happiness. We also believe that by sharing our province's diverse histories we help create a collective understanding of who we are and how we came to be. The people who give their time, talent and treasure to the WDM are part of our Museum family and as family, you belong within our Museum.

How do we say thank you to family? The only way we know how.

For all you do, and all you give, THANK YOU!

With our sincerest appreciation,

Joan Kanigan, CEO

Celebrating 1,077 Volunteers

Volunteers give their time for many reasons - to gain new skills and experience, build confidence, to lend a hand, or to give back and lift up their community. These dedicated individuals have an immeasurable impact on the Museum with their energy, stories and passion for Saskatchewan history.

From those directly in the public eye leading engaging gallery tours or delighting kids with real horse and wagon rides, to those who work behind the scenes caring for artifacts, our volunteers bring and share their unique experience and talents. Without them, messages couldn't be sent by telegraph, our galleries would be a lot quieter, our steam engines wouldn't operate and school programs would be a lot less fun.

In 2018, these generous individuals gave a total of 46,113.25 hours.

THANK YOU to each and every volunteer for each and every hour.

Our doors are always open to new volunteers. Contact a WDM near you or visit wdm.ca/volunteering.

Your Gift To The WDM

LEAVE A LEGACY™ is a national, community-based public awareness campaign of CAGP that encourages people to leave a gift through their will or another planned giving vehicle to a charity or cause that is meaningful to them.

Although the program is active throughout the year, May is officially LEAVE A LEGACY™ Month.

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF GIFT PLANNERS (CAGP)

At the WDM we are fortunate to receive support from so many in our community. Members, the corporate community, in-kind and private donors have given generously in support of various WDM initiatives. We can't thank them enough for their generosity.

There are many ways to give to the WDM. The WDM gratefully accepts cash donations, gifts-in-kind, publicly traded securities including stocks, mutual funds and bonds, life insurance policies, endowed funds and bequests. All donations are important to us. We hope that our donors feel valued and appreciated as their donation makes a difference by supporting our many programs and projects.

If you have included a gift to the WDM in your financial planning or if you would like to learn more about donating to the WDM, we would like to thank you and understand "the story" behind your gift planning. Please contact Susan at 306-934-1409 EX. 236 or email sscharf@wdm.ca to share your story.

To know where you are going you must first understand where you have been. WDM donors have the opportunity and ability to impact future generations. My goal is to make your philanthropy efficient, meaningful, and fun.

Camping in 1930s Style

It may seem like a novel idea today, but at one-time it wasn't unusual to build your own camper trailer. This is exactly what camping enthusiast Oscar Rederburg did in 1931. Oscar ordered blueprints for a trailer from the Covered Wagon Company of Detroit, Michigan. He worked on the trailer in his spare time while working for the Weyburn Security Bank in Griffin. By the summer of 1931, it was ready for camping. The family pulled the trailer with a 1928 Pontiac to Carlyle Lake for its first trip. It remained a family staple for many years even being used by Oscar's son on his honeymoon in 1958.

The Covered Wagon Company trailer was one of the first mass-produced campers in North America. First manufactured in 1929, it was popular throughout the Depression years. By 1939, the company ran into hard times, unable to adapt to newer developments in trailer styles.

Restored by WDM staff, we invite you to check out Oscar's camper trailer as part of a new exhibit at the WDM Saskatoon.
