A VISION FOR TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION THROUGH TREATY IMPLEMENTATION

We Are All Treaty People

Office of the Treaty Commissioner

The Office of the Treaty Commissioner has been working with hundreds of partner organizations since 2014 to develop a common Vision for Truth and Reconciliation through Treaty Implementation. In this process, we have asked thousands of Indigenous and non-Indigenous citizens from Saskatchewan about the reconciliation story they would like to tell in a generation. We believe that if we can come together on a common vision for success, that we can better work together, and determine whether progress is being made.

Saskatchewan residents have told us that Truth and Reconciliation through Treaty Implementation is about walking together on a journey to create a new, shared future for our children and grandchildren. They've told us that it involves four overlapping and continuous areas of work:

Shared Understanding of Our History

- We will understand and honour the history of this land, including past and present wrongs
- We will have respectful relationships with our ancestors and with the land
- Individuals, families, communities and nations will be strong and healing

Authentic Relationships

- Strong relationships, partnerships and trust will exist among all people
- We will have greater skills for communicating and managing conflicts

Vibrant Cultures & Worldviews

- Our cultures and languages will be strong; worldviews respected
- Our social experiences will be woven together; we share and learn from each other

Systems that Benefit Us All

- We will have quality of life for all and systems will reject racism
- We will have representative leadership and workforce
- Treaty promises and Indigenous sovereignty will be honoured
